Wish List

We are in constant need of the items listed in the box. If you could buy an extra item or two for the Baby Corner while you are shopping, we would greatly appreciate it!

Other suggestions

Do you ever shop thrift stores? When you go, look in the toy section. Often there are perfectly good toys that can be scrubbed and rinsed to look like new. Baby and toddler toys made by Ambi, Playskool, Little Tykes, and Fisher-Price are especially desirable. We suggest that you not purchase toys missing parts, toys that have cracks (may pinch little fingers), fast-food type toys (choking hazard), or battery-operated toys (unless the toy makes an equally great plaything without the batteries). Having your children help clean the toys is a great way to get them involved, even at an early age, in community service.

What does the Baby Corner need?

The Baby Corner is always in need of the following items. Please post this list on your refrigerator or some other place that's easy to check before you go shopping or as you clean out closets and drawers.

Diapers (disposable or cloth), all sizes

Diaper rash ointment and wipes

New digital fever thermometers

Vinyl pants and diaper covers

Infant formula (with iron), especially Similac and Enfamil

Baby wash

Baby clothes, especially sleepers, blanket sleepers, and newborn undershirts/onesies

New or gently used children's underpants

Board books

Baby equipment,* especially car seats, strollers, and portable cribs

Baby front packs and carriers

Nursing pillows

Laundry soap (Dreft) and detergent

Bedding: crib sheets, blankets, quilts

Toys (newborn through preschool): developmental toys such as nesting cups and stacking rings, push/pull toys, Duplos, toy telephones, musical toys for babies, coloring books with crayons and markers

Teething rings and rattles

Nursing bras and nursing pads

Personal hygiene items for new moms: maxi sanitary pads, hand soap (bar or liquid)

* Used baby equipment must be in good condition, have ALL parts and hardware, and meet current safety standards. Regrettably, we cannot accept full-size cribs, exersaucers, or walkers.
